WHAT IS THIS LAWSUIT ABOUT?

The Lawsuit was filed by Plaintiff Keith Lacy ("Plaintiff") on behalf of hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for Azuma Foods International, Inc., USA ("Azuma Foods") directly or through a staffing agency during the Class Period in California.

The Lawsuit pleaded class allegations against Azuma Foods for: (1) failure to pay overtime wages; (2) failure to provide meal periods; (3) failure to provide rest periods; (4) failure timely to pay minimum wages; (5) failure to pay all wages due upon separation of employment; (6) failure to issue wage statements in compliance with Labor Code § 226; (7) violation of California Labor Code § 2698 et seq. for civil penalties under the Private Attorneys General Act of 2004; and (8) violation of California

Business & Professions Code § 17200 et seq. based on the alleged failures set forth in (1) through (7). Azuma Foods denies each and all of the claims and contentions alleged by the Plaintiff. The Court has not made any rulings regarding the merits of the cases. Defendant denied and continues to deny all of Plaintiff's allegations.

After engaging in extensive investigation and a full day of mediation before an experienced mediator in which both sides recognized the substantial risks of an adverse result in the Lawsuit for either side, Plaintiff and Defendant agreed on a class settlement that was preliminarily approved by the Court on October 27, 2017. Plaintiff and Class Counsel support the settlement.

The class settlement represents a compromise and settlement of highly disputed claims. Nothing in the settlement is intended or will be construed as an admission by Defendant that Plaintiffs claims in the Lawsuit have merit or that it has any liability to Plaintiff or the Class on those claims.

The parties and their counsel have concluded that the settlement is advantageous, considering the risks and uncertainties to each side of continued litigation.

WHAT IS A CLASS ACTION?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more persons sue on behalf of other people who have similar claim Keith Lacy is the Class Representative or Named Plaintiff in the Lawsuit and he asserts claims on behalf of himself and the class. Azuma Foods International, Inc., USA is the Defendant. A class action allows the Court to resolve the claims of all the class members at the same time. A class member is bound by the determination or judgment entered in the case, whether the class wins or loses, and may not file his or her own lawsuit on the same claims that were decided in the class action. A class action allows one court to resolve all of the issues in a lawsuit for all the class members who choose not to exclude themselves from the class.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT CLASS?

All persons who were employed by Azuma Foods directly or through a staffing agency in non-exempt positions in the State of California at any time during August 15, 2012 to December 31, 2016.

The Class or Participating Class Member shall not include any person who submits a timely and valid request for exclusion.

WHAT ARE THE TERMS OF THE CLASS SETTLEMENT?

In exchange for the release of claims against it and final disposition of the Lawsuit, Defendant will pay One Million Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars and Zero Cents ($1,900,000.00) ("Class Settlement Amount"). After attorneys' fees and costs, enhancement payment to the Named Plaintiff, a payment to the California Labor and Workforce Development Agency, and settlement administration costs are deducted from the Class Settlement Amount, the remaining "Net Settlement Amount" will be distributed to Participating Class Members. Each estimated payment is the pro rata allocation of the Net Settlement Amount based on the Members' total Workweeks' worked during the Class Period.<sup>2</sup> Your estimated payment is on the first page of this Notice, but the actual amount may vary somewhat based on the actual implementation of the settlement.
- Class Representatives Enhancement Payment: Named Plaintiff will request from the Court an award of $15,000 in recognition of his efforts and risks in assisting with the prosecution of the Lawsuit. Any amount ordered by the Court will be paid from the Class Settlement Amount.
- Class Counsel Award: Class Counsel will request from the Court not more than thirty-five percent (35%) of the Class Settlement Amount ($665,000 of $1,900,000) as attorneys' fees for litigation and resolution of the Lawsuit, as supported by declaration(s). Class Counsel will also request from the Court reimbursement for the advanced litigation costs, which are estimated to be no more than $35,000.
