NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION CERTIFICATION

If you were employed by MY WORLD ENTERPRISES, INC., dba ALONDRA HOT WINGS from December 16, 2014 through the present and were not reimbursed for business related expenses, a class action lawsuit may affect your rights.

A court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

YOU ARE NOT BEING SUED.
Please read this notice carefully.

Two former employees sued My World Enterprises, Inc. dba Alondra Hot Wings (“Alondra Hot Wings”) alleging that it failed to reimburse payment of business-related expenses of employees with respect to the purchase and use of the “hot schedules” application and with respect to uniforms, in addition to the derivative Labor Code claims associated with the alleged unreimbursed expenses. The former employees allege that employees should have been reimbursed for these business-related expenses. The case is called ALBINO LUGO-RODRIGUEZ, et al. v. MY WORLD ENTERPRISES, INC., dba ALONDRA HOT WINGS., Case No. BC637677.

The Court has allowed the lawsuit to be a class action on behalf of all current and former employees of My World Enterprises, Inc. dba Alondra Hot Wings. in California who, at any time since December 16, 2014, purchased and used the “hot schedules” application and who had unreimbursed uniform related expenses.

Alondra Hot Wings denies the allegations and denies any wrongdoing, and has asserted numerous defenses as to procedure, liability, and damages.

The Court has not decided whether Alondra Hot Wings did anything wrong, but has decided that a class pertaining to the above described allegations is certified for litigation. There is no money available now and no guarantee there will be. However, your legal rights are affected, and you have a choice to make now. Alondra Hot Wings’ records indicate you are a class member.

Your Legal Rights Are Affected Even if You Do Not Act.
Read This Notice Carefully.

Your Legal Rights and Options in this Lawsuit

Do Nothing - Remain in the Class	You may choose to remain in the lawsuit. Exclude Yourself	If you do not want to be part of the lawsuit and bound by the decisions, you may ask to be excluded from the lawsuit, by returning the enclosed exclusion form.  If you ask to be excluded and money or benefits are later awarded, you won’t share in those. But, you keep any rights to sue Alondra Hot Wings separately about the same legal claims in this lawsuit.  If you are considering excluding yourself from the class, please note that there may be a risk that any new claims asserted against Alondra Hot Wings may no longer be timely and may be time barred.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I get this notice?

Records show that you worked for Alondra Hot Wings at some point since December 16, 2014. This notice explains that the Court has allowed, or “certified,” a class action lawsuit that may affect you. You have legal rights and options that you may exercise before the Court holds a trial. The trial is to decide whether the claims being made against Alondra Hot Wings, on your behalf, are true and correct. Judge Carolyn B. Kuhl of the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as ALBINO LUGO-RODRIGUEZ, et al. v. MY WORLD ENTERPRISES, INC., dba ALONDRA HOT WINGS., Case No. BC637677.

2. What is the lawsuit about?

The lawsuit is about whether Alondra Hot Wings should have reimbursed employees with respect to the "hot schedules" application and with respect to uniform related expenses.

3. What is a class action and who is involved?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people called “Class Representatives” (in this case Albino Lugo-Rodriguez and Elizabeth Villanueva (collectively referred herein as “Plaintiff” or Plaintiffs”) sued on behalf of other people who have similar claims. The people together are a “Class” or “Class Members.” The person who sued—and all the Class Members—are called the Plaintiffs. The company they sued (in this case My World Enterprises, Inc., dba Alondra Hot Wings) is called the Defendant. One court resolves the issues for everyone in the Class—except for those people who choose to exclude themselves from the Class.

4. Why is this lawsuit a class action?

The Court decided that this lawsuit can be a class action and move towards a trial because it meets the requirements of California Code of Civil Procedure section 382, which governs class actions in California state courts. Specifically, the Court found that:

- There are people who are or were employed by Alondra Hot Wings who may not have been reimbursed for the purchase of the “hot schedules” application as part of their employment during the relevant period;
- There are people who are or were employed by Alondra Hot Wings who may not have been reimbursed for the costs of purchasing or maintaining their work uniform in the relevant period;
- There are legal questions and facts that are common to each of them;
- Albino Lugo-Rodriguez and Elizabeth Villanueva’s claims are typical of the claims of the rest of the Class;
- Albino Lugo-Rodriguez, Elizabeth Villanueva, and the lawyers representing the Class will fairly and adequately represent the Class’ interests;
- The common legal questions and facts are more important than questions that affect only individuals; and
- This class action will be more efficient than having many individual lawsuits.

More information about why the Court is allowing this lawsuit to be a class action is in the Court’s Order Certifying the Class, which is available at <http://www.phoenixclassaction.com/lugo-v-my-world/>.
