

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, CONTRA COSTA COUNTY
MARTINEZ, CA
DEPARTMENT 12
JUDICIAL OFFICER: CHARLES S TREAT
HEARING DATE: 06/08/2023

C. Attorney Fees

Plaintiff seeks one-third of the total settlement amount as fees, relying on the “common fund” theory. Even a proper common fund-based fee award, however, should be reviewed through a lodestar cross-check. In Lafitte v. Robert Half International (2016) 1 Cal.5th 480, 503, the Supreme Court endorsed the use of a lodestar cross-check as a way to determine whether the percentage allocated is reasonable. It stated: “If the multiplier calculated by means of a lodestar cross-check is extraordinarily high or low, the trial court should consider whether the percentage used should be adjusted so as to bring the imputed multiplier within a justifiable range, but the court is not necessarily required to make such an adjustment.” (Id., at 505.) Following typical practice, however, the fee award will not be considered at this time, but only as part of final approval.

Similarly, litigation costs and the requested representative payment of $10,000 for the plaintiff will be reviewed at time of final approval. Criteria for evaluation of representative payment requests are discussed in Clark v. American Residential Services LLC (2009) 175 Cal.App.4th 785, 804-07.

D. Discussion and Conclusion

The Court finds that the settlement is sufficiently fair, reasonable, and adequate to justify preliminary approval.

Counsel are directed to prepare an order reflecting this entire tentative ruling, the other findings in the previously submitted proposed order, and to obtain a hearing date for the motion for final approval from the Department clerk by phone. Other dates in the scheduled notice process should track as appropriate to the hearing date. The ultimate judgment must provide for a compliance hearing after the settlement has been completely implemented. Plaintiffs’ counsel are to submit a compliance statement one week before the compliance hearing date. Five percent of the attorney’s fees are to be withheld by the claims administrator pending satisfactory compliance as found by the Court.

CASE NAME: GILDARDO STEVENS VS. PURPLE EAGLE LLC
HEARING ON MOTION IN RE: PRELIMINARY APPROVAL
FILED BY: STEVENS, GILDARDO MOTO
TENTATIVE RULING:

Plaintiff Gilardo Mota Stevens moves for preliminary approval of his class action and PAGA settlement with defendant Purple Eagle LLC. The motion is granted.

E. Background and Settlement Terms

Defendant is the parent of Hand & Stone Massage and Facial Spa. Plaintiff was employed with defendant as a neuromuscular therapist in the spring of 2021, though only briefly.

The original complaint was filed on October 26, 2021. A PAGA claim was added by amendment in January 2022.

The settlement would create a gross settlement fund of $150,000. The class representative payment to the plaintiff would be $5,000. Attorney's fees would be $50,000 (one-third of the settlement). Litigation costs would not exceed $15,000. The settlement administrator's costs are estimated at $10,000. PAGA penalties would be $10,000, resulting in a payment of $7,500 to the LWDA. The net amount paid directly to the class members would be about $62,500, not including distribution of the PAGA penalty. The fund is non-reversionary. There are an estimated 351 class members. Based on the estimated class size, the average net payment for each class member is approximately $178, not including PAGA. The individual payments will vary considerably, however, because of the allocation formula prorating payments according to the number of weeks worked during the relevant time. The number of aggrieved employees for PAGA purposes is smaller, because the starting date of the relevant period is later.

The entire settlement amount will be deposited with the settlement administrator within 14 days after the effective date of the settlement.

The proposed settlement would certify a class of all current and former non-exempt employed at Defendants' California facilities between October 26, 2017 and March 25, 2023. For PAGA purposes, the period covered by the settlement is October 26, 2020 through March 25, 2023.

The class members will not be required to file a claim. Class members may object or opt out of the settlement. (Aggrieved employees cannot opt out of the PAGA portion of the settlement.) Funds would be apportioned to class members based on the number of workweeks worked during the class period.

A list of class members will be provided to the settlement administrator within 15 days after preliminary approval. The administrator will use skip tracing as necessary. Various prescribed follow-up steps will be taken with respect to mail that is returned as undeliverable. Settlement checks not cashed within 180 days will be cancelled, and the funds will be directed to the Controller's unclaimed property fund.

The settlement contains release language covering all claims and causes of action, alleged or which could have reasonably been alleged based on the allegations in the operative pleading, including a number of specified claims. Under recent appellate authority, the limitation to those claims with the "same factual predicate" as those alleged in the complaint is critical. (Amaro v. Anaheim Arena Mgmt., LLC (2021) 69 Cal.App.5th 521, 537 ("A court cannot release claims that are outside the scope of the allegations of the complaint.") "Put another way, a release of claims that goes beyond the scope of the allegations in the operative complaint' is impermissible." (Id., quoting Marshall v. Northrop Grumman Corp. (C.D. Cal.2020) 469 F.Supp.3d 942, 949.)

Formal discovery was undertaken, resulting in the production of substantial documents. The matter settled after arms-length negotiations, which included a session with an experienced mediator.

Counsel also has provided an analysis of the case, and how the settlement compares to the potential value of the case, after allowing for various risks and contingencies. Plaintiff's principal claim centers on allegations that because therapy appointments are scheduled for the start of each shift, it was necessary for employees to arrive early to prepare the spa rooms, resulting in unpaid work time. Defendant responded that employees could clock in, and begin getting paid, when they arrived and started working. Plaintiff also asserted violations concerning rest breaks and meal breaks, but can point to no stated policy in violation of the law; hence, defendant contended that there is no documentation of any such violations, which are in any event difficult to prove and to certify for class treatment. Plaintiff also contended that employees were required to use their personal cell phones for clocking in and related purposes, but defendant contended that there is no such requirement.

The potential liability needs to be adjusted for various evidence and risk-based contingencies, including problems of proof. PAGA penalties are difficult to evaluate for a number of reasons: they derive from other violations, they include "stacking" of violations, the law may only allow application of the "initial violation" penalty amount, and the total amount may be reduced in the discretion of the court. (See Labor Code § 2699(e)(2) (PAGA penalties may be reduced where "based on the facts and circumstances of the particular case, to do otherwise would result in an award that is unjust arbitrary and oppressive, or confiscatory.")) Moreover, recent decisions may make it difficult for PAGA plaintiffs to recover statutory penalties, as opposed to actual missed wages. (See, e.g., Naranjo v. Spectrum Security Services, Inc. (2023) 88 Cal.App.5th 937; but see Gola v. University of San Francisco (2023) 90 Cal.App.5th 548, 566-67.)

Counsel attest that notice of the proposed settlement was transmitted to the LWDA concurrently with the filing of the motion.

F. Legal Standards

The primary determination to be made is whether the proposed settlement is "fair, reasonable, and adequate," under Dunk v. Ford Motor Co. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 1794, 1801, including "the strength of plaintiffs' case, the risk, expense, complexity and likely duration of further litigation, the risk of maintaining class action status through trial, the amount offered in settlement, the extent of discovery completed and the state of the proceedings, the experience and views of counsel, the presence of a governmental participant, and the reaction ... to the proposed settlement." (See also Amaro, 69 Cal.App.5th 521.)

Because this matter also proposes to settle PAGA claims, the Court also must consider the criteria that apply under that statute. Recently, the Court of Appeal's decision in Moniz v. Adecco USA, Inc. (2021) 72 Cal.App.5th 56, provided guidance on this issue. In Moniz, the court found that the "fair, reasonable, and adequate" standard applicable to class actions applies to PAGA settlements. (Id., at 64.) The Court also held that the trial court must assess "the fairness of the settlement's allocation of civil penalties between the affected aggrieved employees". (Id., at 64-65.)

California law provides some general guidance concerning judicial approval of any settlement. First, public policy generally favors settlement. (Neary v. Regents of University of California (1992) 3 Cal.4th 273.) Nonetheless, the court should not approve an agreement contrary to law or public policy. (Bechtel Corp. v. Superior Court (1973) 33 Cal.App.3d 405, 412; Timney v. Lin (2003) 106 Cal.App.4th 1121, 1127.) Moreover, “The court cannot surrender its duty to see that the judgment to be entered is a just one, nor is the court to act as a mere puppet in the matter.” (California State Auto. Assn. Inter-Ins. Bureau v. Superior Court (1990) 50 Cal.3d 658, 664.) As a result, courts have specifically noted that Neary does not always apply, because “Where the rights of the public are implicated, the additional safeguard of judicial review, though more cumbersome to the settlement process, serves a salutary purpose.” (Consumer Advocacy Group, Inc. v. Kintetsu Enterprises of America (2006) 141 Cal.App.4th 48, 63.)
